Posing pictures is a disgusting business according to the look on Dan Baasen's face.

Mr. Freeberg spreads the good word—"Your pages are due tomorrow!"

The yearbook—the Wayako, is a record of high school activities. For the Wayako staff, most of these activities took place in a little room affectionately called "The Pub". Remember—... the lists of captions on the bulletin board? ... the Schlitz Beer sign? ... playing Hearts or Gin Rummy? ... the crumby typewriters? ... Nancy's birthday party? ... Mr. Freeberg's helpful hints? ... finding an available photographer? ... the summer supplements? ... learning to proportion pictures? ... the frantic night before deadline?
