

Wayzatan Pressed On With Offset

Sticky fingers paste up the Wayzatan. Sports editor—Bear Slothower, advisor—Mr. Freeberg, editor-in-chief—Jean Moldestad.

Wayzatan's editors kept reporters and photographers on their toes with last minute requests for stories and pictures. They also experimented successfully (in spite of crooked copy) with offset type. The newspaper informed its subscribers of school life with news stories, editorials, feature articles, and sports coverage while Mr. Freeberg lent a helpful hand, a watchful eye, and an abundance of experience to everyone.

Pub serves both Paula Englund and . . .

Rick O'Fallen.
