

All hands on deck ... for a cast picture.

Chorus Presents "Pirates of Penzance"

Dick Grise, Luke Stemmer, Bill Larson, Dick Swanson, and Mary Lou Doerrie.

The Pirates of Penzance, presented May 26 and 27, brought the new auditorium stage under the direction of Mr. Cherwien's chorus. This musical by Gilbert and Sullivan proved effective in breaking-up end of the year monotony.

The theme centered around a young, unwilling, but duty-bound pirate, Frederic. Indentured until his twenty-first birthday, he prepared to devote his life to the elimination of piracy. He was committed to marry his nurse, Ruth, until he compares her with Major-General Stanley's wards. Soon they are all captured and surrender to a police force. Life seemed dismal until Ruth persuades the lawmen that all the pirates were misled noblemen. They were freed and allowed to marry the beautiful wards of Major-General Stanley.

CAST

Maj-Gen. Stanley	.....	Bill Larson
Pirate King	.....	Luke Stemmer
Samuel	.....	Dick Grise
Frederic	.....	Dick Swanson
Sgt. of Police	.....	Dick Wallenstine
Mabel	.....	Mary Lou Doerrie
Edith	.....	Elaine Soule
Kate	.....	Mary Efraimsen
Isabel	.....	Beverly Ghent
Ruth	.....	Diane Baldinger

"Quit dancing and shoot already!" Luke Stemmer, Dick Swanson, Diane Baldinger.