

Offense in motion, Bill Scheller prepares to hand off in a game against Robinsdale.

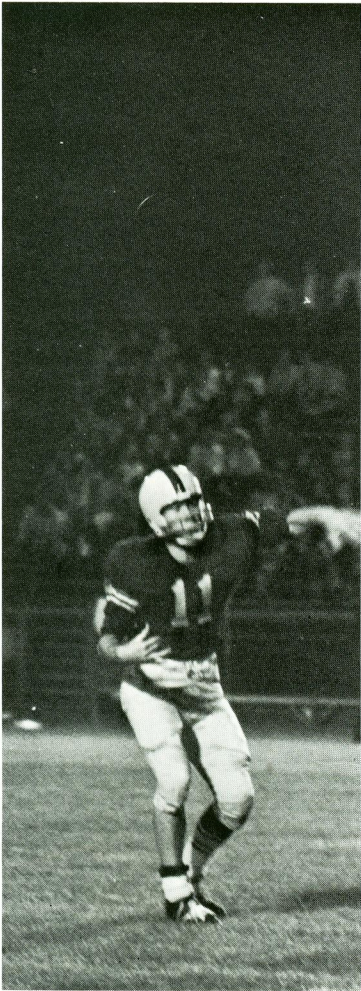

Trojans Defense Hangs Tough

Coach Jim Graven's football team battled through another long, frustrating season. As usual, the Trojan defense was tough. Despite the margins of some final scores, every opponent left the field with a healthy respect for the tenacity of the defensive unit.

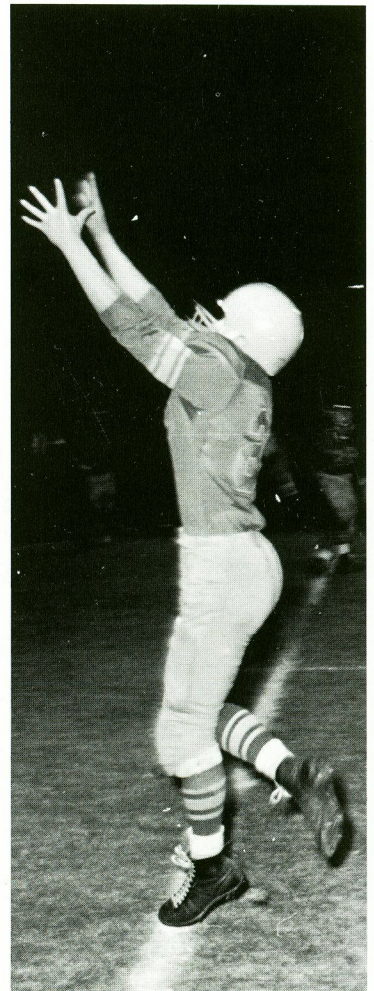

The defense was sparked by the team's most valuable player choice, Dayton Berg, at middle guard; all conference selection Jake Cadwallader at tackle; and linebacker, Jeff Rice.

The offense was led by the passing of quarterback Bill Scheller and the pass catching of ends Don Anderson, Dave Leuer, Bob Simmons, and Rick Swenson. The blocking of Cadwallader and Berg, paced the line.

Outstanding junior prospects are guard John Darby and defensive half Allan Hannura.
